

Western

Centre for Research in Social Inequality

GRADUATE STUDENT ACADEMIC PROJECT COMPETITION

Deadline: 3/25/2024 at 6pm

The Western Centre for Research on Social Inequality (CRSI) is supporting a student academic competition for projects focusing on social inequality.

a. Eligibility

- a. A graduate student in the Faculty of Social Science at Western University and
- b. A graduate student affiliate of the Western Centre for Research on Social Inequality
- c. If you are not a graduate student affiliate of CRSI, you can e-mail crsissc@uwo.ca and Leha Huffman (lhuffma@uwo.ca) to sign up.

b. Fund

- a. Prize: $1500 gift. Should there be cowinners, the awardees will split the prize money. There may be a maximum of 3 awardees.

c. Application details

- a. Proposal: Please submit a 1-page proposal (12 font; Times New Roman; 1.5 space; 1-inch margins) with the following information
 - i. Title of project
 - ii. Authors of the project
 - iii. Description of the project
 - iv. Data and methods being used
 - v. Mention how your findings will contribute insights to the broad literature on social inequality.
 - vi. Describe scholarly contribution
- b. The application should be submitted to crsissc@uwo.ca
- c. The project can be co-authored by other students and faculty at Western. Co-authorship with faculty must be specified. Sole authored student papers or co-authored papers only involving students will be prioritized.

d. Adjudication

A committee comprised of a select group of faculty associates of CRSI.

<https://nest.uwo.ca/crsi/>